We assigned you an employer identification number (EIN)

Your EIN is 41-4469517. The name control associated with this EIN is SAFE.

What you need to do

- If you did not apply for this EIN, visit IRS.gov/EINNotRequested.
- You must use this EIN and your name exactly as they appear above when you fill out your tax returns. Otherwise, it may cause delays. If your name or address is incorrect as shown, call us at the phone number provided below.

What you need to know

When you applied for an EIN, you identified your organization as a non-profit. Being assigned an EIN doesn't mean you're automatically tax-exempt. You must apply specifically for tax-exempt status.

To apply for recognition of tax-exempt status, organizations must complete one of the following forms:

- Form 1023, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code
- Form 1023-EZ, Streamlined Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code
- Form 1024, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(a)
- Form 1024-A, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code

Most organizations claiming tax-exempt status must file a Form 990 series annual information return (Form 990, 990-EZ, or 990-PF) or notice (Form 990-N) beginning with the year they legally form, even if they haven't yet applied for or received recognition of tax-exempt status.

If you become tax-exempt, you'll lose that status if you don't file a required return or notice for three years consecutively. There are some exceptions, but generally, you need to file every year. We start counting those three years from the date we gave you your EIN. If the first tax year isn't a full twelve months, you still need to file a return for that year. Contact us if your organization didn't legally form in the same tax year you received your EIN.

Keep a copy of this notice for your records because we'll only send it to you once. You can share a copy with future officers of your organization or anyone asking for proof of your EIN.
